Nine of New Jersey’s 20 Largest Office Buildings Are Located in Jersey City; NJ BIZ Rankings Based on Square Footage of Office Buildings

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Steven M. Fulop announced today the nine of the twenty largest office buildings in New Jersey – based on square footage – are located in Jersey City, according to a report released by NJBIZ.

“Jersey City has the largest down town skyline in New Jersey and this list proves the point,” said Mayor Fulop. “Some of our larger new commercial tenants include the Depository, Trust and Clearing Corporation (DTCC) and Fidelity Investments. Our proximity to New York, our lower operating costs, the relative newness of our office buildings, and our diverse and highly-skilled workforce are all factors in why more and more businesses are choosing Jersey City.”
